Announcing the 2010 Images of Youth Video Festival.

If you're 12-19 years of age, here's your chance to express what you think is right, or wrong, or ought to be changed in the world.

This curated video festival will feature young people's perspectives from around the world. Topics include body image, advertising, the environment, politics, tobacco, alcohol and other drugs, violence, relationships and global issues. For a complete list of topics, see the festival guidelines at our website: www.imagesofyouthfilmfestival.org. We care about production values, but what interests us most is what you think about the issues.

The festival videos will be showcased and cash awards presented to six winners in a public screening on March 25, 2010, at the Youngstown Cultural Arts Center in Seattle, WA., and posted online. Videos may be no more than 5 minutes in length.

Deadline for entries is March 1, 2010.
